Beef, Veal & Lamb- Last week's cattle harvest eased from the prior week but, at 654,000 head, was 4.1% larger than the year prior. Heading into the last few weeks of the year, carcass weights are expected to temper total production. Carcass grading remains exceptional. Prime grading posted a new all-time high at 11.03%. Since cattle were reportedly on feed for longer periods throughout 2018, higher quality grades and heavier placement weights will likely continue into 2019. As expected, retailers are in full holiday mode, featuring ribeyes and round roasts aggressively heading into Christmas. The grinds are likely to garner a modest boost next month, but history has shown that winter demand is usually sluggish.
