

Tomatoes (Large)

The lettuce markets are starting to back off. The iceberg lettuce harvest has been strong which is encouraging shipments. Iceberg lettuce shipments last week rose 7.7% from the prior week and were 22.6% bigger than the same week last year. Romaine shipments remain subpar as they were down 9% last week from the prior year. The risk in the lettuce markets remains to the downside in the near term. Tomato prices remain inflated. History suggests that lower tomato prices are likely to occur during January.
